

Alliance2015 Overview Brochure 2006/2007 Available Now

Alliance2015 has just released its new overview brochure 2006/2007. The 16-page booklet presents examples of development cooperation in the South and features the lobby & campaign activities in Europe. It is now available from all six Alliance members. If you are interested in an electronic file, please click here or open 'read full article' to reach a download button.

Additionally to presenting an overview of Alliance activities, the brochure lists facts and figures and presents the six members' profiles. A new section features portraits from selected countries where Alliance cooperation is strong: India, Peru and Namibia.

This truly international product to which staff and professionals from nine countries have contributed, is available right here as an electronic file (size: 1,2 MB). You can also order it as a hard copy from any of the six Head Offices of the Alliance member countries (see the Members & Contacts section for address details.
